NARRATIVE SUMMARY
PART II

Enclosure (1)
CONFIDENTIAL

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

NARRATIVE SUMMARY

1. During the month of March, VMO-2, lead by LtCol Mike Moriarty, continued to provide invaluable support for the 1st MarDiv, ROKMC, ARVN, U.S. ARMY, and 1st MAW. The squadron contributed 643 combat sorties, for an impressive total of 1347 flight hours. VMO-2 continued to perform its primary mission, totalling 158 FAC(A) missions, 339 visual reconnaissance sorties, 100 photo reconnaissance missions and 30 artillery missions. The squadron accounted for 5 enemy KBA, and reported 34 fire incidents.

The value of the OV-10A in support of Marine reconnaissance units was never more clearly demonstrated than during this month. On several occasions, the "Broncos" were responsible for preventing the annihilation of one of these small units, and their quick action in calling for supporting arms inflicted damage on enemy positions discovered by the teams.

On 1 March 1970, five sorties were flown in support of the 1st MarDiv reconnaissance team Impressive, a company size unit which was inserted and extracted in Elephant Valley. 12 March 1970 saw Hostage Colt, (Lt Colt), direct the extraction of Terrapin, which was under intense enemy fire, and follow up with two airstrikes on the enemy positions.

Hostage Zulu, (Lt Svenson), Turtle, (Maj Carroll), and Gringo, (Lt Williams), joined forces to successfully extract Abe Lincoln when the unit had made contact with an unknown size enemy force, suffering one KIA and one WIA. When the team Penny Wise found themselves surrounded by a superior enemy force, they were able to break contact while Hostage Duke, (Capt Herbert), and Hostage Jumper, (Lt Lindberg), controlled three flights of fixed wing aircraft on the enemy positions.

VMO-2 support continued with Hostage Zulu, (Lt Svenson), controlling two flights of fixed wing aircraft while extracting the team, Bad Actor. Hostage Able, (Maj Waters), covered the emergency extraction of Trailer Park, while Hostage Bill, (Capt Paulson), directed Flakey Snow to safety after an enemy force moved to within 50 meters of their position.

During the month, a total of eight emergency extractions were conducted, and heavy to intense enemy fire was encountered in virtually all instances. But perhaps the most spectacular extraction was conducted at night, under a heavy overcast, in the difficult terrain west of Thuong Duc. The extraction of reconnaissance team, Knoxville, demonstrated the coordination and professionalism of VMO-2's night stand-by package, consisting of an FAC(A) aircraft and an OV-10A equipped with 40 MK-45 flares. Hostage Turtle, (Maj Carroll), and Hostage Colt, (Lt Colt), responded at 2000 to Knoxville's call that it was receiving intense enemy mortar, M-79, and small arms fire. Coordinating with UH-1E gunships, the CH-46 extract package, and Basket Ball C-130 flareship, the extraction of the beleaguered team was accomplished without the team sustaining further casualties.

Operation Pacifier was reinstated during the month of March and yielded outstanding results. The strike package consisting of two infantry platoons carried by 3 CH-46's proved its worth on 24 March. When Grassroots 14 notified Hostage Able, (Maj K. D. Waters), of 7 NVA/VC observed in the AT 8397 grid, Able directed Grim Reaper to the area. The subsequent insertion and fire fight resulted in numerous KIA's and POW's.

The squadron continued its support of the 1st MAW intelligence effort by flying 28 Mission 75 visual reconnaissance sorties. Because of the intelligence efforts in this area, several airstrikes were controlled by VMO-2, resulting in the destruction of one large caliber enemy gun position, and numerous enemy rice fields and storage areas. The significant sightings on these missions included boats, rafts, trenchlines, active .50 caliber gunsites, bridges, bunkers, hootches, and enemy personnel. Close monitoring of road and trail use provided an indication of infiltration and supply routes.
