INTERVIEWS WITH OFFICERS AND MEN ON ADAK
AND ABOARD THE USS GRANT, PRIOR TO KISKA
LANDING

Aleutian Islands

6 Aug 1943

No Captions

Various MSs, off-screen interviewers speak with men aboard ship prior to their shipment to Kiska.

On Adak, men discuss their arrival on the island. One man who hangs out his socks tells the interviewer that they're drying the socks because last night they waded through more than three feet of water to make their landing.

VS, interviews with the officers and men aboard the USS Grant en route to Kiska. One Sgt interviewed while sewing on his Adak patch tells of his experience at the ATTU landings and expresses his opinion that the Adak, Kiska landings and clean up will take about six weeks.

PAN L/R, Adak harbor as narrator points out the various transports, destroyers, and LSTs.
