

BULLETIN

FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

SUBJECT:

Emergency Medical Procedures

No. : 82-BUL-62

To:

All National Office and Washington
Field Office Employees

Date: June 3, 1982

From:

Kenneth E. Moffett
Director

In the event of an emergency requiring medical attention employees should dial 911 and explain the situation. This number is the fastest way to get help.

This number can also be used to notify the police or fire department of a life-threatening emergency situation.