

111
ADC
6033

SOURCE: AFCE (H-246)

FILM: ARCH & APC MP, 579' ea Silent

ANTILLES DEPARTMENT MEDICAL LABORATORY (SPX-62)

San Juan, Puerto Rico - 16 June 1946

MLS, Pathology Dept. Women personnel and officers working.

MSCU, sectioning of specimen; imbedding of specimen in paraffin.

Splicing of specimen in sections with microtome to be mounted on slides.

Diagnosis of specimen on slides under microscope.

Section of specimen for microscopic diagnosis and placing pieces of the stained specimen on slides.

Pan, activity in Serology Lab; putting blood specimen into centrifuge.

MLS, putting serum into warm water bath.

L & MS, officer handling test tubes in reading of Kahn Test.

Scenes of technicians working on micro-Kueldahl determination of blood protein.

L & MS, identification of malaria mosquitoes. MS, rack of test tubes.

CU, technician listing cultures.

Record Group 111

Accession III-NAV-210