

SOURCE: AFCE (A-2028)

FILM: ARCH & APC MP 970' ea Comp (Std)

111
ADC
6312

WAR CRIMES TRIALS, TOKYO, JAPAN
20 DECEMBER 1946

Continuation of Nurse Vivian Bullwinkel's story; She regained consciousness after being left for dead and dragged herself into the jungle. Returning to the beach later she found a sick soldier. Unable to find food they decided to give themselves up again.

24 DECEMBER 1946

Colonel Dalmate questioning Col Nicholas D J Read-Collins, British officer, in charge of feeding 65,000 women and children in the various POW camps. The colonel relates the shocking conditions in the camps he visited.

ARMY PICTORIAL CENTER, 35-11 35th Ave., LIC 1, NY

ERBS/mle

Record Group 111
Accession III-NAV-210