

SOURCE: AFCF (Peterson Film from National Archives)
FILM: ARCH & APC MP 769' ea Silent

Card 1 of 2

BYRD ANTARCTIC EXPEDITIONS
LITTLE AMERICA
1933-35, 1939 (No captions)

View from the ship Jacob Ruppert of ice-covered coast.

View from ship, cliffs of ice.

Supplies are unloaded from ship at Little America.

A cow is coaxed into a crate. The crate is then unloaded.

Tracked vehicles pulling supplies.

Large supply dump in Little America.

Men checking tracks on vehicle.

Man testing a motor which has just been unpacked.

A cow led from a tent to fabricated hut.

Gangplank connecting ship with the ice-covered shore is pulled up.

The vessel, a combination of sail and steam, moving out. In the fg. a dog sled.

Excellent scenes, sequence: Men setting up sections of prefabricated huts.

LS, huts and equipment at Little America.

HS, installation at Little America.

RG 111

Accession III-NAV-210

SOURCE: AFCE (Peterson Film from National Archives)

Card 2 of 2

FILM: ARCH & APC MP 769' ea Silent

BYRD ANTARCTIC EXPEDITIONS, (Cont)

LITTLE AMERICA (Cont)

1933-35, 1939 (Cont) (No captions)

Some planes on the snow-covered field.

MSs, box supplies and joints of frozen meats. Men stacking boxes of supplies.

Men enlarging passageway in ice tunnel. LS, men cutting blocks of ice.

LS, igloo with American flag flying from pole.

CU, hand brushing ice-encrusted snow.

(Note: Film is badly scratched on left side of screen, commencing with sequence scenes.)

RG 111

Accession III-NAV-210