INTELLIGENCE

A. ENEMY

1. General. During this reporting period the 3rd Battalion made twenty-four (24) contacts with the enemy. There were three (3) daylight contacts, one (1) of which was initiated by the enemy; and twenty-one (21) night contacts of which six (6) were enemy initiated. The Battalion accounted for six (6) enemy KIA's, five (5) detainees, and one (1) POW. Weapons captured included five (5) AK-47 Assault Rifles, and one (1) 7.62 millimeter Soviet K-54 pistol.

2. Enemy Situation. The active enemy units operating in the 3rd Battalion's AO make up the Northern Wing, which is subordinate to the Front 44. Units of the Northern Wing are the:

(a) Hai Van Engineer Battalion. This unit has an estimated strength of one hundred twenty-five to one hundred fifty (125-150) personnel. It is operating out of the base camp areas in the northern part of the AO, vicinity AT8790.

(b) T-87 Sapper Battalion. This unit has an estimated strength of one hundred twenty-five to one hundred fifty (125-150) personnel. They are broken down into a headquarters section and two (2) companies. This unit also has an underwater sapper capability, estimated fifteen to twenty (15-20) men. The sappers are probably operating out of a base camp area, vicinity AT8789.

(c) C-31 Independent (Doc Lap) Company. This unit has an estimated strength of seventy-five (75) personnel. They have probably moved north of the Song Cu De and are operating from the vicinity of the sapper battalion.

(d) C-7 Company. This unit, with an estimated strength of fifty to sixty (50-60) personnel, is also believed to have moved north with the C-31 Company and is now operating from the same general area.

(e) 573 Artillery Battalion. This unit, with a 122mm and 140mm rocket capability, is assigned the mission of providing the Northern Wing with artillery support, both rockets and mortars, in coordinated attacks against selected ground installations in the AO.

3. Enemy Mission. The enemy's mission remains the same as in the previous month, that of small reconnaissance patrols, supply runs, and proselytizing of the Vietnamese civilians in the populated areas of Hoa Lac, Hoa Vinh, and Hoa Hiep. The enemy still has the capability to launch sapper attacks, both ground and underwater, on selected targets in the AO. If these attacks are attempted they can be strongly supported by rocket and mortar attacks. Selected targets include Hill 190, Nam O Bridge, Northern Artillery Cantonment, the Lien Chieu Esso Plant, and probably the highest priority target, the ARVN compounds and CUPP units in the AO. Indications are the enemy has placed a greater emphasis on anti-air reconnaissance efforts. While he has met with little success it is expected that his efforts will continue.

ENCLOSURE (1)
UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

4. Enemy Trends and Capabilities. The enemy retains the capability to conduct periodic stand-off attacks. Maximum employment of artillery, air, naval gun fire, and extensive night time patrolling have prevented the enemy from infiltrating sufficient numbers of troops into the populated areas to support any large scale attack from the mountains in the western and northwestern portions of the AO. The enemy must move in small size units in order to avoid detection. He will continue to do so and at the same time maintain pressure on the local populace by means of VC Infrastructure. During the coming month the enemy will place particular emphasis on the taxation and collection of agricultural produce. The VC Infrastructure will also play a primary role in these taxation and collection efforts.

B. WEATHER

1. The temperatures during this reporting period ranged from a high of ninety-five (95) degrees to a low of sixty-six (66) degrees. The mean temperature for the month was eighty (80) degrees. Rainfall for the month totaled one and sixty-four one-hundredths (1.64) inches.

C. TERRAIN

1. In the Hoa Lac, Hoa Vinh, Hoa Thanh area the terrain is mostly covered by rice paddies. The hamlets and villages are on higher dry ground. There are several uninhabited hamlets with the remains of a few concrete houses. These areas provide good cover and concealment and storage sites for the enemy.

2. The area south and southwest of Hill 190 and Hill 124 is characterized by low, rolling hills. Vegetation consists of low trees and bushes. Movement in this area is fairly easy. The ability to maneuver troops in this area is very good.

3. The major portion of the AO (Northwestern area) consists of extremely rough, steep, mountainous terrain. Movement in this area is greatly restricted, especially for large units. Unless streambeds or trails are followed, movement is reduced to one hundred to three hundred (100-300) meters per hour. Cover, concealment, and water is in abundance.

PART II

OPERATIONS

A. ORGANIZATION AND DISPOSITION

The 3rd Battalion continued its mission of protecting Nam O Bridge, the Lien Chieu Esso Plant, Hill 190, and the top of Hai Van Pass during April. Disposition of forces centered around squad-sized day and night patrols and night ambushes from the eastern portion of the AO to the foothills and ridgelines in the western portion. Activities were designed to cut enemy supply and infiltration routes and to secure that portion of the DaNang Rocket Belt located in the Battalion AO.

One rocket assault was launched from 3rd Battalion's AO on 1 April. Four (4) flashes were observed at coordinates AT900870, two (2) at AT863023, and eight (8) at AT870815. Counter-battery fire was delivered to the launch sites immediately and patrols dispatched to the areas as soon as possible.

Commencing 19 April one (1) platoon from Company "K" went under operational control of 1st Battalion. On 28 April operational control of the platoon was returned to Company "K".

Commencing 27 April an operation was begun with one (1) squad from Company "K" starting a three (3) day patrol of Marines and Regional Force troops in the area of Hill 1192 (AT914911). On 28 April the operation continued by heli-lifting one (1) platoon (rein) from Company "I" into the vicinity of AT854815 to conduct search and clear activities in that area. Simultaneously one (1) platoon (rein) from Company "K" was lifted into the vicinity of AT858791 for similar activities in this area. A combined unit of one (1) squad from Company "L" and one (1) squad of Regional Force troops from the 1/25th RF Company were lifted into the vicinity of AT896864 that same day for the purpose of setting up a combat patrol base/observation post in that vicinity.

On 29 April one (1) squad from Company "K" with one (1) squad from the 1/25th RF Company were lifted into the vicinity of AT898887 to establish a combat patrol base/observation post. The operation will continue throughout the high threat period extending into May and is designed to deny the enemy the use of the area of the DaNang Rocket Belt in 3rd Battalion's AO.

Emphasis was placed during the month of laying heavy H&I fires and air strikes on suspected or likely rocket launching sites and enemy infiltration/supply routes.

As of 30 April the forces under the tactical control of 3rd Battalion were disposed as follows:

Battalion CP was located at (AT940783)

UNCLASSIFIED

Company "I" was located on Hill 190 (AT896823), the company operating in the area of the Claw (AT910825) and in the area to the southwest of the Company CP.

Company "K" CP was located at and was providing security for the Lien Chieu Esso Plant (AT936866), with one (1) platoon (rein) located above and guarding Hai Van Pass (AT943921). The Company operated primarily in the northern portion of the Battalion AO.

Company "L" CP was located at Nam O Bridge (AT925845), the Company providing security for the bridge and operating on the northern side of the Cu De River to the west and northwest of the bridge.

B. AIR SUPPORT

FIXED WING

The First Marine Aircraft Wing supported the Third Battalion with a total of seventy-one (71) fixed wing air missions. These consisted of sixteen (16) close air support missions; fifteen (15) A-6 Beacons; twenty-seven (27) TPQ-10; and thirteen (13) forward air controllers (Airborn) missions utilizing OV-10 aircraft. These aircraft dropped a total of one hundred and ninety-seven (197) tons of bombs and napalm; expended twenty-eight hundred (2800) rounds of 7.62mm; fifteen hundred (1500) rounds of 20mm ammunition.

ROTARY WINGED AIRCRAFT

Twenty-six (26) medevacs were completed which evacuated twenty-three (23) emergency, nineteen (19) priority, and one (1) routine. The average medevacs from time of request until time over the LZ was ten (10) minutes. The average time for an emergency medevac from initial request to mission completion was nineteen (19) minutes.

There was twenty-one (21) visual reconnaissance missions utilizing the OH-46 and HUE aircraft.

During the month of April there were a total of five-hundred and twenty-six (526) passengers heli-lifted in support of the Third Battalion, First Marines. Company "I" heli-lifted two hundred and eighty-six (286) passengers from Hill 190 (AT897822) to OP-39 (AT848844) and Hill 124 (AT877788) on 28 April. Company "L" (AT924845) and Company (AT897821) changed personnel on all OP's. A total of two hundred (200) passengers were lifted to OP-39 (AT848844), Hill 124 (AT877788), and OP-T-2 (AT900868).

C. ARTILLERY

11th Marine Regiment provided artillery support for the Battalion during April. Battery "C", 1st Battalion, 11th Marines provided the majority of the direct support fires with Battery "A" assisting. General support fires came from Battery "L" (155 self-propelled howitzer), 4th Battalion, 11th Marines and Platoon "A", 3rd 8 inch Howitzers. Extensive use was made of available naval gunfire from Task Force 70.8.9 which fired over two thousand (2,000) rounds. Direct fire from Company "C", 1st Tank Battalion and 3rd Battalion's organic 106mm recoilless rifle augmented the indirect harrassing and interdiction fires. As can be seen in the summary, the 81mm mortar platoon fired over three thousand (3,000) rounds of observed fire which reflected the increase in enemy activity.

The Fire Support Coordination Center was manned by personnel from Battery "C" and the 81mm mortar platoon. Grid clearance in excess of two hundred (200) coordinates a day was processed by the FSGC. All companies were supported by both 81mm mortar and artillery forward observer teams. Many fire support classes for small unit leaders were conducted by the forward observers. In addition, Company "K" artillery forward observer team assisted in 4.2 inch mortar training for Regional Force personnel.

Most notable in the fire support picture for April was the activation of 3rd Battalion's sensor system on 12 April. Quick reaction to sensor activation places rounds on target in three (3) minutes or less.

B. PATIENT LOAD

1. For this period three hundred seventy-five (375) patients were seen at the Battalion Aid Station Sick Call for an average of thirteen (13) patients per day.

2. There were fourteen (14) diagnosed with V.D., thirty-nine (39) with diarrhea, fifteen (15) with upper respiratory infection, eight (8) with FLU, sixty-three (63) with skin disorders and three (3) with malaria.

C. MEDCAP/DENCAP

1. Medical aid was given to three hundred sixty (360) Vietnamese civilians by the BAS.

2. Dental care was given to twenty-six (26) Vietnamese civilians by the BAS.

3. Seven (7) MEDCAPS and one (1) DENTCAP were held in the month of April.

D. SANITATION

1. Weekly sanitation inspections were conducted throughout the Battalion area and the outlining areas during the month of April. The Battalion and the outlining areas were found to be overall satisfactory. There is a problem with head barrels not being burned thoroughly and drop bars not being used to keep barrel compartments tightly closed. The Battalion continues to take measures and has replaced the nonfunctional urinals and replaced many head barrels. Nam O Bridge CP had a drainage problem at the mess area but engineer assistance has corrected this situation.

2. The Medical Department is continuing its efforts to insure there is no rodent problem by setting poison baits and setting traps throughout the areas.
