5. Intelligence. 5 intelligence briefings were conducted for the Commanding Officer, staff, and battery commanders.

6. Air Defense. HAWK runs have been re-initiated by higher headquarters. The runs are controlled by MACS 4 through Panama. Aircraft returning from strike missions with excess fuel are vectored into our AOR and are engaged by this Battalion. HAWK runs are considered beneficial for training of personnel in the combat operations center as well as TCO's at the Battery level.

7. Training

a. One marine from Battery C was sent to NCO Leadership School in Okinawa.

b. Battalion personnel during the month of April received instruction in general military subjects, technical training peculiar to the equipment which they operate, safety lectures, and familiarization firings of both individual and crew served weapons.

8. Ground Defense. At midnight on the 23rd of April while checking posts at Battery "A", the marine Sergeant of the Guard heard 6-10 shots fired in the vicinity of post #4. Investigation revealed that the 3d MP Bn, sentry dog handler, had challenged 2 persons hidden in the tall grass inside the barbed wire barrier. A flare was discharged and an individual was seen fleeing. The individual was again taken under fire. Inspection of the fence line revealed that the wire had been breached in 2 places, one hole was about 5' wide, the other had been cut, pulled together and marked with rope. At daybreak a patrol was sent out. A trouser leg was found with blood on it.
