- d. Administration No significant events in this area.
- e. Intelligence No significant events in this area.
- f. Training The personnel in the forward platoon conducted a familiarization firing with .50 caliber machine guns, M-60 machine guns and personal weapons on 26 June 1966. On the job training was held for the large number of new men joining the battery during June.
- g. Special Operations On 20 June 1966, the forward platoon was ordered to displace to take up a position north of Tam Ky in support of Operation Kansas. On the way a bridge collapsed under the first gun and the convoy was cut off. The gun was pulled out and continued with the forward half of the convoy. The remaining half and the second gun returned to its original position (BT 437083). Later the same day the first gun collapsed a dirt filled culvert approximately 3,000 meters north of Tam Ky on Route #1. The gun sank with the loss of one man PFC F. T. EARLES, and 2 men were injured slightly. The gun was recovered and returned to Chu Lai on 22 June 1966.
- h. Command and Control As of 30 June 1966 the 3d 155mm Gun Battery was located at BT 497031. One platoon is laid on azimuth 4300 and another platoon on azimuth 3700. The forward platoon is positioned at BT 437083 with azimuth of fire 4800.
- i. Close Combat On the morning of 20 June 1966, the forward platoon, in position with the 2nd Battalion, 11th Marines, was attacked by an estimated 80 to 100 Viet Cong. The attack was preceded by intense mortar and automatic weapon fires. Pvt K. D. KILBOURNE was a major factor in the defense of the area by effectively manning the .50 caliber machine gun on his 155 SP gun. His devastating fire silenced an enemy machine gun and burned a house containing Viet Cong. The platoon sustained no casualties in this action.
- j. Fire Support Nothing significant to report in this area.
- k. Air Defense Not applicable.
- l. Combat Air Support Not applicable.
- m. Civic Action This battery has continued civic action and pacification efforts with the people of Long Phu (2) by providing a truck and men to assist in moving the local barber shop and laundry to a better location.
- n. Nuclear, Biological, Chemical or Special Warfare. Not Applicable.
