2. Commander's Narrative Summary of Significant Events

At 1500 hours on 29 March 1966, this Regiment was detached from the 3rd Marine Division (Rein), FMF and was returned to the operational control of the 1st Marine Division (Rein), FMF. As a part of the 1st Marine Division, this Regiment provided close and long range fire support for U.S. and Government of Vietnam Armed Forces (GVNAF) utilizing light, medium and heavy artillery organic to the regiment. During this period, subordinate units were deployed on combined operations with the 2nd ARVN Division in Operations IOWA, NEVADA, HOT SPRINGS and WYOMING. In addition, Battery I, 3rd Battalion was deployed twice in unilateral operations, locally named HARVEST I and II, to prevent guerilla forces from seizing part of the sugar cane and rice crops harvested at this time and once in support of a search and clear operation conducted by 3/7. Also long range support fires were provided for Special Forces Camps and Popular Forces (PF) outposts located in the Song Tra Bong valley.

To illustrate the magnitude of fire support provided the 1st Marine Division and GVNAF during this period, a table indicating the ammunition expenditure is provided.

3. Detailed Description of Significant Events

a. Personnel. During the period covered by this report, losses due to battle injuries were four enlisted, while non-battle injuries were five enlisted. Administrative USMC losses were 8 officers and 144 enlisted while Navy losses were 1 officer and 1 enlisted. Replacements joined were 5 USMC officers, 134 USMC enlisted and 1 USN enlisted.

Secret

b. Intelligence. The intelligence efforts during this period remain the same with aerial observers and forward observers still being the primary source of information. As reported by the 1st Reconnaissance Battalion, the concentrated harrassing and interdiction fires to the northwest of CHU LAI have resulted in restricting night movement of the Viet Cong forces. Selected targets, based on aerial observer reports, have been restricted to trails, caves, trench network, AA gun positions, fighting holes, and gun positions. It is noted that gun positions are being constructed in a "U" shape. AA positions are circular with a mound of earth in the center resembling a doughnut. A recent development of the VC gun positions has been in the form of a triangle which has a doughnut shaped AA position at each corner.

c. Special Operations

(1) HARVEST I. A local operation was conducted on 1 April to help protect the sugar cane and rice harvesting personnel from guerilla forces. Battery I 3/11 was displaced to BS 572964 with a direction of fire of 3400 mils and a mission of direct support of 3/7.

Summary of Surveillance. Reports from Marine Corps units included no Viet Cong casualties attributed to artillery fire. Artillery fires were provided to support infantry movement and resulting Viet Cong casualties were included in a single total. The artillery ammunition expended was 194 rounds.

(2) IOWA. This operation commenced on 8 April and ended on 9 April. It was a combined U. S. Marine Corps and 2nd ARVN Division operation. The following units participated and deployed to the positions listed:

UNIT	POSITION
Command/Control Group 1/11	BT 440100
Battery C 1/11	BT 440102
Battery K 4/11	BT 440102
CMR Team A	BT 440100

During the evening of 8 April, this artillery group received small arms fire and three rifle grenades. Three trucks were damaged, no injuries to personnel. No contact was made with the attacking force.

Summary of Surveillance. No Viet Cong casualties resulting from artillery fires were reported by Marine Corps units or American advisers with ARVN forces. A firm accounting of casualties due to artillery fire alone was not possible due to fires being in support of infantry movements and resulting casualties included in a single total. During this operation 699 artillery rounds of various calibers were fired.

(3) HARVEST II. Battery I displaced on 3 April to BS 573965, direction of fire 3400 mils, for a one day operation in support of 3/7 for the purpose of protecting sugar cane and rice harvesters from guerilla forces.

Summary of Surveillance. A total of 272 rounds of artillery ammunition was fired in support of this operation resulting in six Viet Cong killed in action confirmed by Marine Corps personnel. A firm total of Viet Cong casualties resulting from artillery fire is not available as casualties resulting from infantry movements supported by artillery fire were totaled.

(4) NEVADA. Planning for Operation NEVADA began on 8 April. A provisional battery of six 155mm towed howitzers, Battery M Forward, was organized and deployed to the vicinity of Quang Ngai (BS 6473) to support the 2nd ARVN Division initially. On 11 April four two-man artillery Liaison/Forward Observer Teams and one aerial observer were deployed to Quang Ngai for assignment to ARVN forces. Commencing 12 April, Operation NEVADA was launched. The listed units displaced on this date to the following positions:

UNIT	POSITION	DIRECTION OF FIRE
Command/Control Group 3/11	BS 624844
Battery M Forward 4/11	BS 673755	300
Battery C 1/11	BS 624844	1300
Battery G 3/11	BS 624844	1300
3rdPlt 8" HowBtry (SP)	BS 598920	2300

During the operation, the following subsequent displacements were made to support the participating ground forces.

Date	Unit	Displaced to	Direction of fire (mils)
13Apr	C 1/11	BS 691765	400
13Apr	G 3/11	BS 692765	400
13Apr	C 1/11	BS 712782	700
14Apr	G 3/11	BS 710780	800
14Apr	Command/Control Group 3/11	BS 712781
14Apr	M Forward 4/11	BS 607721	5200
15Apr	M Forward 4/11	BS 672755	700

On 14 April, Battery M Forward was required to displace to the Quang Ngai airfield in support of an ARVN unit to repel an attack there. Battery M Forward returned to Operation NEVADA as the operation ended 15 April and the artillery units returned to positions within the tactical area. (Tab(6) to Appendix B). Battery M Forward remained in support of the 2nd ARVN Division and was redesignated as Battery N (Prov) 4/11.

Secret

Summary of Surveillance. A total of 3071 rounds of artillery ammunition was expended throughout this operation. Reports from Marine Corps units and American advisers with ARVN units indicate 46 Viet Cong killed in action, seven structures destroyed, three sampans destroyed and one secondary explosion noted. A firm accounting of casualties due to artillery fire alone was not possible due to the concentrated infantry and combined arms fires employed throughout the area of operations.

(5) Search and Clear Operation. Battery I 3/11 displaced to BS 523999, direction of fire 3400, in support of 3/7 in a two company size search and clear operation on 19 April. This operation ended on 20 April as Operation HOTSPRINGS developed.

Summary of Surveillance. Eighty-seven rounds of artillery ammunition were expended without receiving confirmed reports of Viet Cong casualties from Marine Corps units.

(6) HOTSPRINGS. Planning for Operation HOTSPRINGS began 20 April. Intensive preparation fires were conducted from 210400H to 210700H and a landing zone preparation conducted from 210600 to 210700 at coordinates BS 523820. The following artillery displaced to the locations listed:

UNIT	POSITION	DIRECTION OF FIRE
Command/Control Group 3/11	BS 625847
Battery C 1/11	BS 624846	4500
Battery I 3/11	BS 625846	4500
Battery H 3/11	BS 625845	4500
Battery N (Prov) 4/11	BS 608721	5800
2ndPlt, 3rd 8" HowBtry (SP)	BS 572965	3500
1stPlt, 3rd 8" HowBtry (SP)	BS 598920	3900

Personnel from Battery K 4/11 manned the 155mm towed howitzers in Battery N (Prov) 4/11 throughout this operation. All the above artillery units except Battery I, returned to the Tactical Area positions late on 22 April (overlay, Tab(6) to Appendix B). Battery I moved to BS 643846, direction of fire 5200 mils, on 23 April in support of 3/7. Battery I returned to the Tactical Area position at 231945H.

Summary of Surveillance. A report of surveillance was received from a U. S. Marine Forward Observer (Leatherneck - 1) attached to an ARVN unit which attributed 200 Viet Cong killed in action by the preparation fires conducted early on the morning of 21 April. Subsequent surveillances attributed no additional casualties resulting from artillery fires alone. Due to the coordinated air and artillery fires utilized in this operation in close support of infantry units, a firm accounting of casualties resulting from wounds received by artillery fire is not possible. A total of 4,386 rounds of artillery ammunition was expended.

Secret

(8) WYOMING. Planning was initiated for Operation WYOMING on 24 April. Two two-man Artillery Liaison/Forward Observer Teams were assigned to ARVN forces for this operation on 25 April. During the morning of 26 April, the following units displaced to the locations indicated in support of Operation WYOMING:

UNIT	POSITION	DIRECTION OF FIRE
Command/Control Group 1/11	BT 397149
Battery C 1/11	BT 397149	4600
Battery N (Prov) 4/11	BT 397148	4950

Battery N (Prov) was composed of personnel from Battery K 4/11 who manned five 155mm towed howitzers. The artillery returned to the Tactical Area locations (indicated on Tab (6), Appendix B) on 29 April at the conclusion of Operation WYOMING.

Summary of Surveillance. No Viet Cong casualties resulting from artillery fires were reported by Marine Corps units or American advisers with ARVN forces. An accurate accounting of casualties derived from artillery fires alone was not accomplished and casualties found were placed in a single total. A total of 468 rounds of artillery ammunition was expended.

d. Command and Control. Location of command posts and battery positions as of 30 April 1966 are depicted on the overlay attached as Tab (6) to Appendix B.

e. Logistics. During the month of April, most logistics functions, other than routine reports and staff visits, centered around the movement of ammunition and rations to support operations. A total of 5,000 rounds of 155mm howitzer ammunition and 4,000 rounds of 105mm howitzer ammunition was transported to support these operations outside the Tactical Area. Contact teams from FLSG-B inspected all artillery weapons within the regiment during the month and inspections were conducted by division representatives on supply and fiscal matters. One battalion received an inspection by the Division Motor Transport Officer with satisfactory results. A course of instruction on automotive test equipment was given to mechanics of the regiment by two division contact teams.

f. Civic Action. The 11th Marines Civic Action Program for the month of April consisted of the following projects:

(1) Headquarters, 11th Marines assisted the village of LONG PHU (2) (BT 5102) in building and establishing a laundry and barber shop. Also medical and dental support for the 1st Battalion's MEDCAP program at the LY TIN Dispensary (BT 4807) was provided.

(2) 1st Battalion, 11th Marines provided employment for one Vietnamese barber, conducted a medical training program for 4 Vietnamese, and provided medical assistance to 519 Vietnamese at the LY TIN Dispensary.

Secret

(3) 4th Battalion, 11th Marines distributed food and soap to 350 Vietnamese, provided medical assistance to 97 Vietnamese, and started construction of an elementary school for the hamlet of TRUNG AN(2) (BTOO59).

f. Aerial Observation. The Artillery Aerial Observation Section during the month of April completed 82 aerial reconnaissance missions. These missions were flown in support of Operations IOWA, HOTSPRINGS, and WYOMING, and in support of the 11th Marines operations within the CHU LAI Tactical Area and Reconnaissance Zone. Aircraft support during the month was provided by the U. S. Army 220th Aviation Company at Quang Ngai (BS 6573) and by VMO-6 at CHU LAI. The section was composed of the following officers on flight orders:

Captain Hollis E. DAVISON	Chief Air Observer
Captain John D. KELLEY	Air Observer
Captain Marlin W. SMITHSON	Air Observer
1stLt Earnest H. KASOLD II	Air Observer
1stLt John T. DOLAN	Air Observer
1stLt Thomas P. PALMERLEE	Air Observer
