PART II - SIGNIFICANT HIGHLIGHTS

1. (G) The beginning of June found MASS-3 with units spread from Chu Lai to Dong Ha. The DASC (Landshark "Alpha") and Air Support Radar Team (ASRT, King Lear "Bravo") at Chu Lai continued to support free world forces in southern I Corps Tactical Zone. At Dong Ha, the ASRT, King Lear "Alpha", continued to operate in conjunction with MASS-2's Devastate "Delta" providing 24 hour TPQ-10 support of DMZ operations. On 9 June, the ASRT, King Lear "Alpha", was returned to Quang Ngai and was operational by the 11th. Not only were the DASC operations somewhat slow, but June also brought a noticeable decrease in TPQ-10 target requests from units in the southern portion of ICTZ. This decrease, coupled with cessation of operations up north, resulted in a lower tonnage figure for this month in comparison with May's totals.
