CHILOCCO
INDIAN SCHOOL

FOREWORD

We, the annual staff, have attempted to portray through the 1966 Chiloccoan the many achievements that you have accomplished during the 65-66 school year.

We hope that each student has fully realized the many opportunities that Chilocco has to offer, and we hope that you will make each year of your life "a year of achievement."

Dedication

June Kirkland

To Mrs. June Kirkland, Home Six adviser.

In appreciation for your many kindnesses, your thoughtfulness, and your willingness to lend a helping hand, we the Senior Class of 1966 dedicate to you the '66 Chiloccoan.

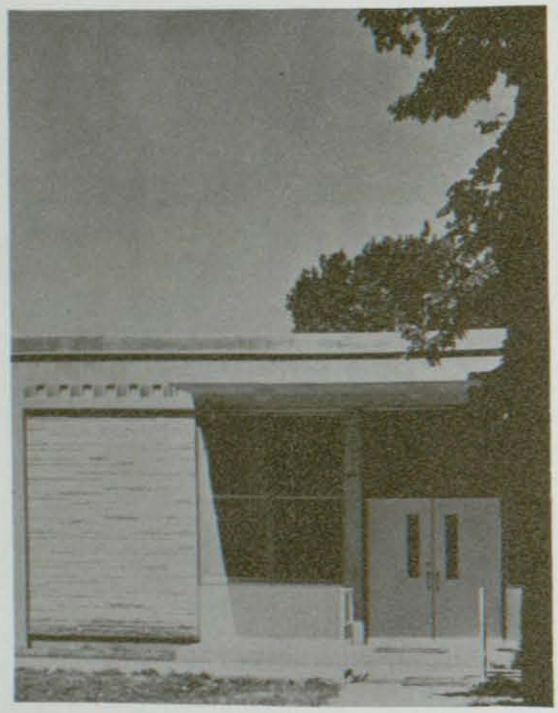
Pre-Vocational Department



The new pre-vocational building was opened in October of the 1963-64 school year.

The department offers one and two hour practical arts classes for freshmen and sophomore boys and two and three hour pre-vocational courses for juniors and seniors.

One hour courses include Woodworking, Foundry and Pattern Making, Beginning Electricity, Small Motors and Sheet Metal. Two hour courses for sophomores include Masonry, Machine Lathe Operation, Beginning Welding, Metal Work and Advanced Small Motors.

Junior and senior level pre-vocational courses are Auto Mechanics, Carpentry and Mill Work, Drafting, Dry Cleaning, Body and Fender, Electricity, Painting, Shoe Repair and Leathercraft, Sheet Metal, Printing and Welding.

Dry Cleaning is offered as a vocation for post high school students.

PRINTING

It isn't really hard to read type upside down Danny! Instructor Lincoln Morris and senior Dan Zackuse go over the proofs for the school paper.

Preparation for the Future

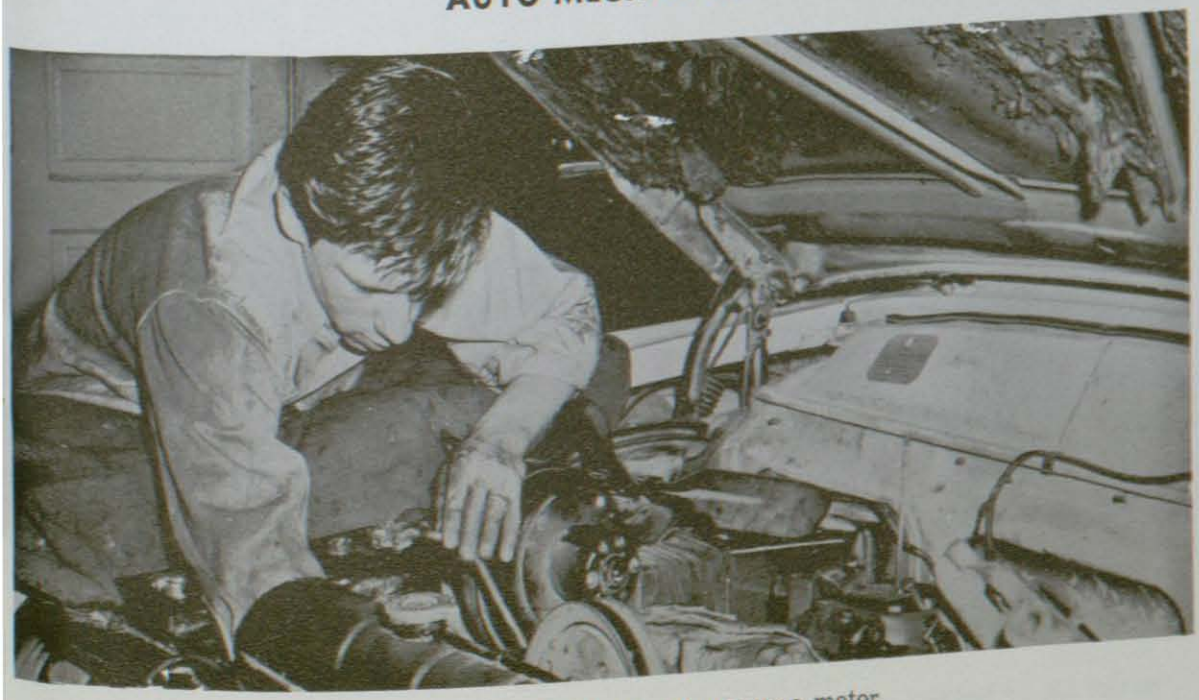
BODY AND FENDER

Two seniors begin work on straightening the frame of a large truck. James Larney, instructor, checks their progress.

GENERAL SHOP

Sophomore shop student Wesley Buckman operates an electrically powered lathe under the watchful eye of instructor Lloyd Means.

AUTO MECHANICS



Senior mechanic John Kreitzer tunes up a motor.

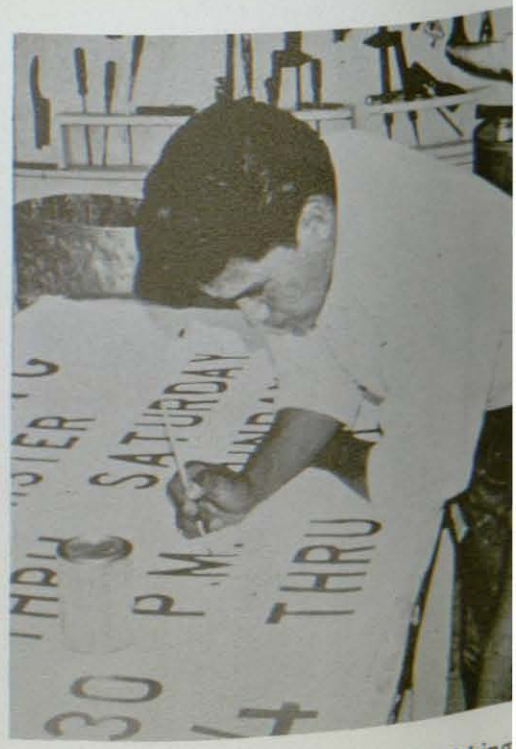
DRAFTING

Senior drafting students observe closely as their instructor Calvin Cowen explains a complex exercise.

WELDING

Senior Lester Spencer operates an acetylene oxygen cutting torch.

PAINTING



Junior James Beard puts the finishing touches on a sign he has just completed.

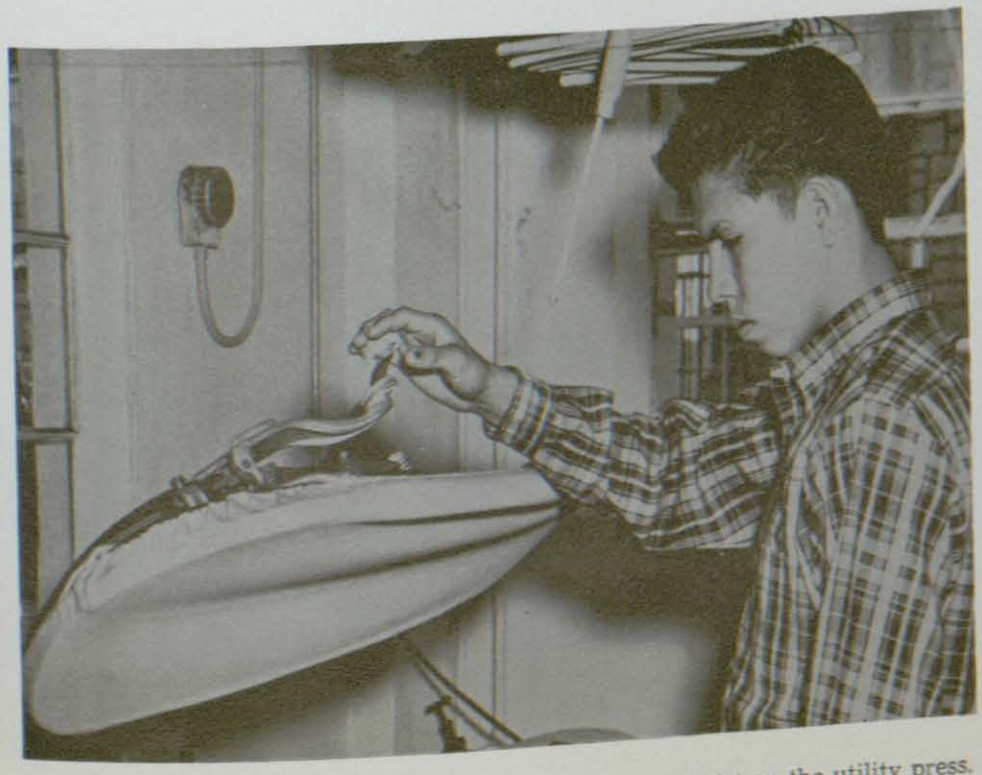
CARPENTRY

Mr. Dabney and Louie Spencer check the blueprint on the sub-flooring of a model house which Louie is constructing.

SHEET METAL

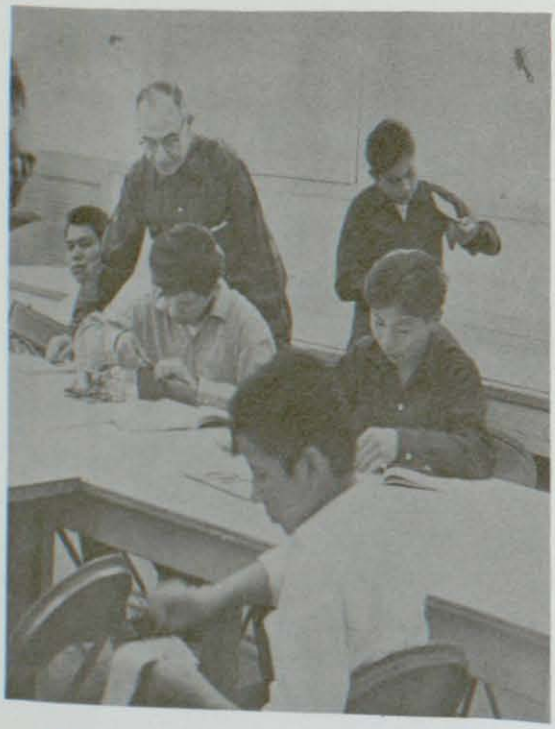
Mr. Pope inspects the overlap on Andrew McCloud's sheet metal project.

DRY CLEANING



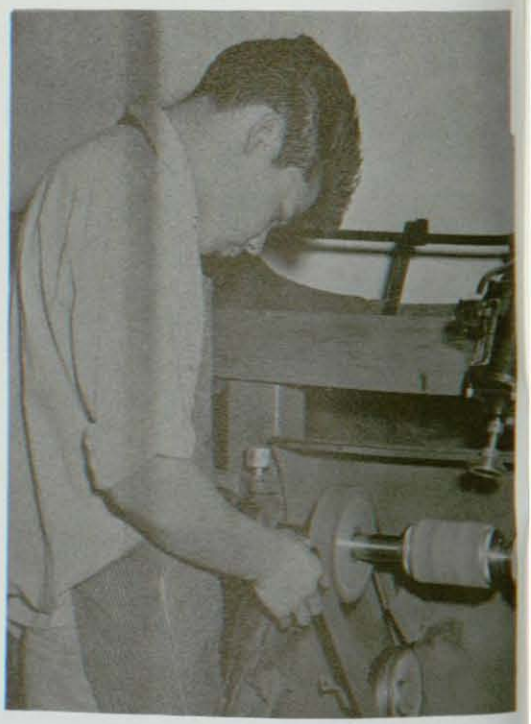
Senior Norman Island puts the finishing touches to a sweatshirt on the utility press.

LEATHERCRAFT



HSPP students are learning the basic techniques of doing artistic leatherwork under the watchful eye of Mr. Ray Vaught.

SHOE REPAIR

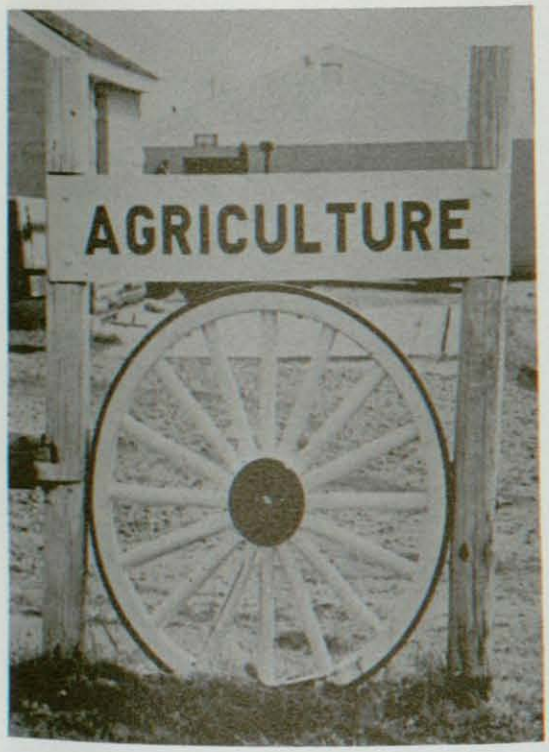


Eric Howe puts the finishing touches on the heel of the shoe he has just repaired.

ELECTRICITY

Four senior electricity students listen attentively and observe closely a demonstration given by Mr. Harvey Lovelace.

Agriculture Department



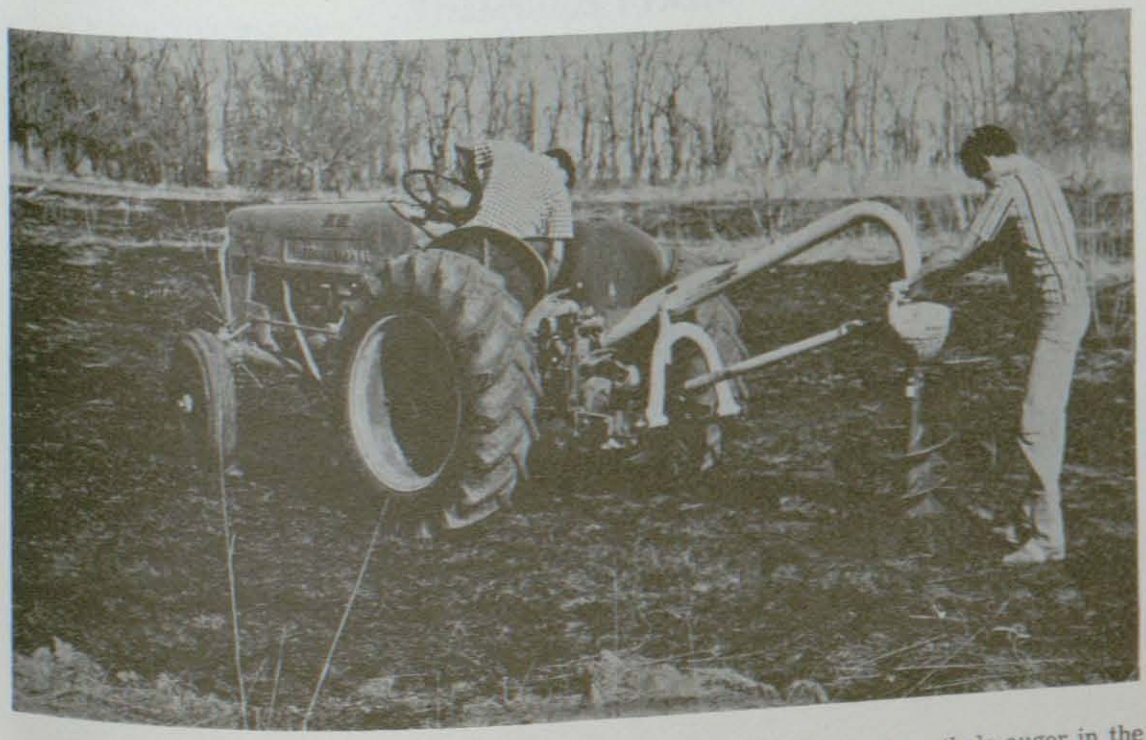
The Agriculture Department offers high school boys training in four major areas: Animal Science, Plant Science, Land Management and Agriculture Engineering. Heavy Epuipment is taught as a vocation for post high school students. Animal Science provides training in the care of beef cattle, sheep, swine and horses.

Plant Science trains students in the production and management of field crops, fruit production and greenhouse management.

Land Management provides students instruction and experience in soil conservation. Students discover for themselves the causes of soil erosion and learn how it can be controlled.

Agricultural Engineering provides training and experience in the operation, care and repair of farm machinery.

PLANT SCIENCE



Junior aggie students Thomas Pinto and Fred Hood operate a mechanical posthole auger in the process of setting out a new orchard.

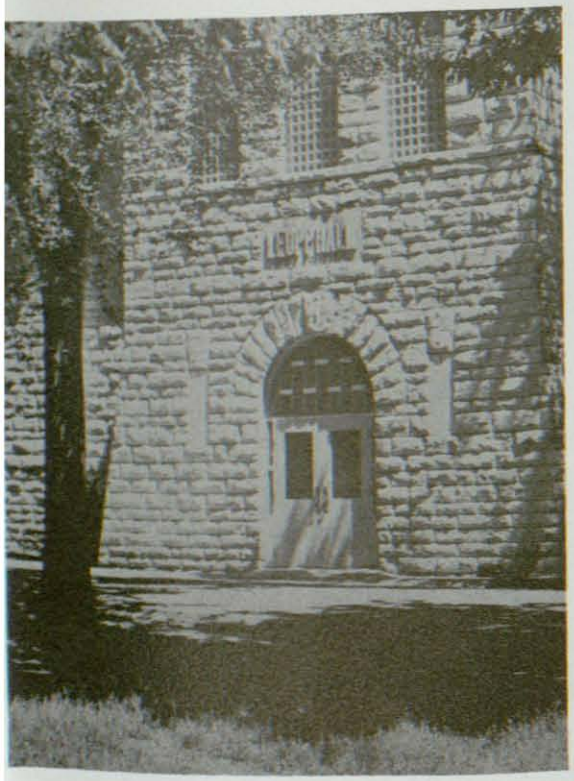
AGRICULTURE

Senior Aggie students, Lynn Batt and Rvan Waterhouse pose proudly with their prize steers:

HEAVY EQUIPMENT

Fernando Nephi clears the way with a "Cat" for the new archway leading to Chilocco.

Home Economics Department



LEUPP HALL

Known to students as the "chowhall," Leupp Hall is the home of the Home Economics Department.

One hour practical arts classes are offered in Marriage and Family Relations, Personal Health and Fitness, Wise Use of Leisure Time, Selection and Care of and Repair of Clothing, Nutrition for the Young Adult and Occupations.

Two hour courses include Advanced Foods, Advanced Sewing, Nursing Arts, Junior Foods, Food Service and Culinary Arts.

Three hour pre-vocational courses in Food Service and Culinary Arts are offered to seniors. Cosmetology is taught to post high school students as a vocation.

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Joy Labuff, a senior from Browning, Montana, received the 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award. She scored highest on a national test taken by all senior girls. Joy is a member of the Blackfeet tribe.

PRE-NURSING

Mrs. Beatrice Boory, pre-nursing instructor, and senior students take time out during a busy discussion period to pose for a picture.

COSMETOLOGY

Post high students Elizabeth Osif and Cornelia Osceola give their instructor Mrs. Schell "the treatment."

CULINARY ARTS

"Here's how its' done," Malcolm Sylestine seems to be saying as he expertly demonstrates the proper way to cut a cake to his senior classmates. (L. to R.) Joy LaBuff, Myrna Flammond, Cecelia Pewamo, Frances Lumpmouth and Nancy Jessepe.

FOOD SERVICE

Senior Food Service student Alice Johns cheerfully serves cherry pie and coffee to Mrs. Robinson, Home Four instructional aid.

Indian Princess and Brave

The coveted titles of Indian Princess and Brave went to Irene Jose and Phillip Deere, both members of the Indian Dramatics Club.

Irene is a 17 year old Pawnee from Pawnee, Oklahoma. She is a member of the Junior Class.

Phillip is an 18 year old senior from Oklahoma City. He is a member of the Creek tribe.

Seniors, Sophomore Capture A

MISS CHILOCCO

Senior Brenda Fulton was chosen by the Senior Class to reign as Miss Chilocco at the Arkalalah Festival in Arkansas City, Kansas. She is a member of the Choctaw tribe and lists her hometown as Yukon, Oklahoma.

TRADES SWEETHEART

Petite Margie Scott, a Cherokee from Stillwell, Oklahoma was elected by the prevocational students as the annual Trades Sweetheart. She was crowned during the Trades Party held in early March.

NATIONAL GUARD SWEETHEART

The title of National Guard Sweetheart went to attractive Brenda Parker, also a senior. She is a Choctaw from Idabel, Oklahoma. She was crowned at the annual Guard party in April.

nnual Queen Titles

1965 PROM QUEEN

"In the Misty Moonlight" was the theme of the 1965 Junior-Senior Prom, and lovely Carol Wak Wak certainly made a beautiful Prom Queen. A senior this year, Carol hails from Wapato, Washington. She is a member of the Yakima tribe.

FOOTBALL QUEEN

BASKETBALL QUEEN

The basketball boys proudly bestowed the title of Basketball Queen upon Nancy Jessepe, a Potawatomi from Horton, Kansas. Crowning ceremonies took place at the Chilocco-Cushing game.

Student Activities

STUDENT UNION

The new Student Union Building, the center of campus activity, was opened to students for the first time this fall.

The modern building houses recreational offices, a conference room, the ever popular Campus Store, a museum, trophy cases and a large basement where school parties are held.

Students are proud of their new building. They enjoy using it as a meeting place with friends after school and on weekends.

Guidance Department

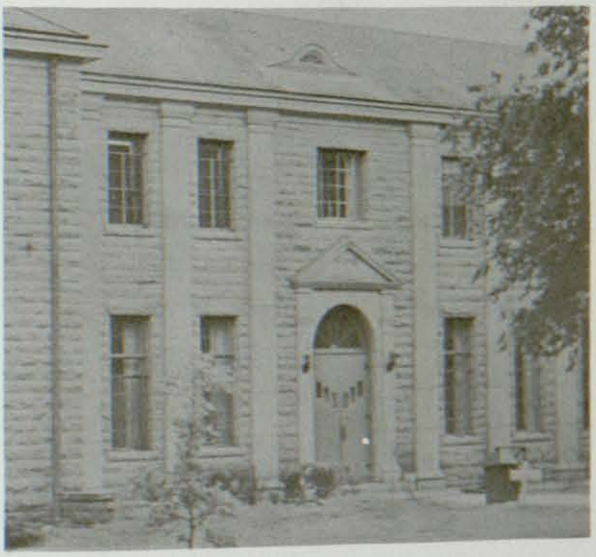
This building houses the offices of Mrs. Mary F. Werneke, girls' guidance director and Mr. D. Gregory, boys' guidance director. Their office is always open to students who need advice and counseling.

Under construction for the past year, this impressive modern building will be the home for 320 boys when opened in September of 1966.

The building features the most modern of facilities. It is air conditioned, each floor has a lounge, it will feature an intercommunication system, a living room, rumpus room with a kitchenette and barber shop, four isolation rooms, and two instructional aid offices.

A bus load of Southwest students arrive in September, anxious to begin the new school year.

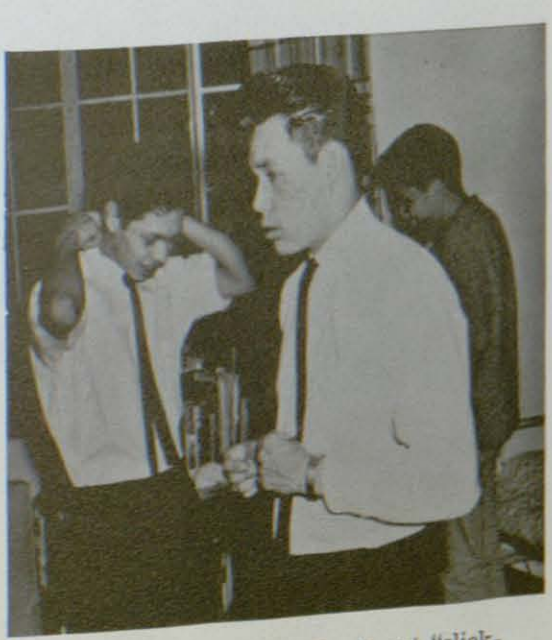
Home Six



Home Six personnel includes Gene McConnell, teacher of guidance; four instructional aids, Bob Begay, Charles Black, June Kirkland, Carriasco McGilbra; and Ernest Toppah, night attendant.

One duty of the boys in Home Six is working at the desk. Thomas Alberts smilingly issues escort passes to Melvin Stevens, Dewayne Mack and Clarence Johnson.

National Guard boys, Henry Becenti and Raymond Ration prepare for a weekend drill.



Keith Others and Allen Frank get "slicked up" for a evening at a social while Spencer Roye gets ready to study.

Home Five

Home Five, dormitory for 193 junior and senior girls. Dorm officers and representatives are Pauletta Elephant, president; Brenda Fulton, vice-president; Karen Haymond, secretary; Ardeena Angelo, representative; and Elizabeth Chase, representative.

Home Five personnel includes Mary Clary, teacher of guidance; Faye Hathcoat, Mary Means and Grace McGilbra, instructional aids; and Virginia Narcomey and Lorena DeRoin, night attendants.

"Now fix me up real gorgeous," says Dorothy Thompson to Darlene Frank.

"Well, what do you know! They're not late," Lillian Cooper and Linda Chuculate get ready to meet their dates.

"Those were the good ole' days," reminisce Linda Hirst and Elaine Lunak, two homesick Montana girls.

Home Four

Home Four, dormitory for 119 freshmen and HSPP girls. Student Council representatives are Janet Long and Sandra Roberts. Staff for Home Four includes Mary Piper, teacher of guidance; Juanita Robinson, Dorothy Crawford and Julia Byrd, instructional aids; Freda Lane, Evangeline Pipestem and Virginia Narcomey, night attendants.

Two girls consult with Miss Piper, guidance teacher, about obtaining passes.

Home Three

Home Three, dormitory for 103 sophomore and older HSPP girls. Student Council representatives are Sarah Dave and Joy Flammond. Home Three staff members are Harriette Washington, teacher of guidance; Ester Snell, Evelyn Gomez, Mabel Jones and Christine Tolth, instructional aids; and Ethel Lavers, night attendant.

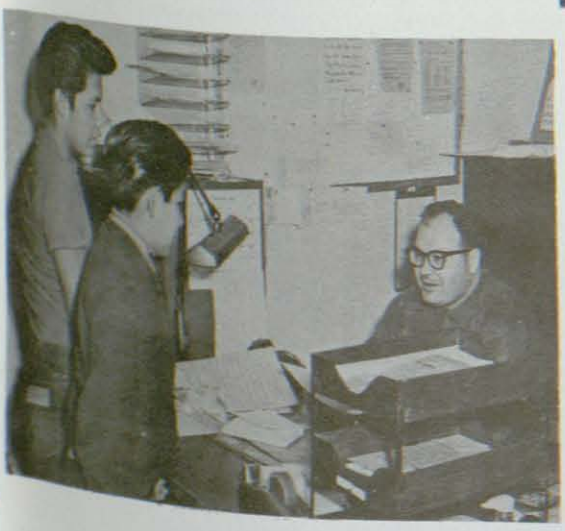
Telephone receptionist Lorraine Honnie answers with a cheery hello!

Eugenia Sanchez seems awfully smug about something. Maybe she is giving Joy Flammond and Dorothy Tail Feather some advice on how to get a letter jacket

Home Two

Home Two, the oldest building on campus, houses 155 freshmen and HSPP boys. Student Council representatives for the dormitory are Herman Sleeper and Benny John Begaye.

Home Two personnel includes Doyle Presley, teacher of guidance; Kenneth Black, Ben Cornell, Sam Tolth and Norman Thornton, instructional aids; and Don Cannon, night attendant.



Mr. Presley advises two boys that they may go to the canteen as soon as their maintenance is finished.

Freshmen boys get dressed up for the Saturday night movie.

Home One

Home One, dormitory for 134 sophomore and post high school boys. Herbert Curtis and Alex Stone are Student Council representatives from the home.

Home One personnel includes Horace Taylor, teacher of guidance; Harold Burris, John King, William Beaver, Henry Willie and Don Snell, instructional aids; Lucille Bearskin and Ernest Toppah, night attendants.

"Oh boy, a big dance coming up!" exclaims Maurice Howe as he and his friends check the bulletin board for coming events.

I'll bet Tommy Benally's mind isn't on the book he is reading! Who likes to study anyway?

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the Class of 1966:

We believe you have profited by the time you spent at Chilocco. One interesting observation is the commendable attitude many of you have developed toward yourself and other people. We believe this opportunity to live on the campus with a thousand other boys and girls is a good social education within itself and should help you be a successful citizen.

To our undergraduates, we trust you have also experienced a good year. We hope that each of you will make plans to return and continue your studies until completion.

Best wishes to each of you for a good summer and years to come.

GEORGE W. WALKER

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

We extend our sincere congratulations to all you graduates of the 1965-66 school year, and urge everyone of you to continue to work toward your ultimate goal. The fact that you have successfully completed an important step in your search for a better life is proof of your interest, desire and ability to accomplish even greater things. We wish you success in every worthwhile endeavor you undertake.

The completion of another successful school year by all the other students is encouraging and rewarding to all the teachers, administrators, guidance personnel, as well as to the students. To these students we offer our encouragement to keep up the worthwhile efforts. Take advantage of every opportunity you have, and there are many, to meet the challenges you are bound to encounter.
