REMARKS

00-04 On the night that starts this year, We find our ship again right here. Berthed to Pier Six Ramp, Da Nang, with headlines and quarter wires holding fast, and smoking out astern we find, Four Hundred-Fifty feet of wire, to the stern anchor in the mire. Sheltered here in harbor now, We watch away Wee Morning hour; In the peace of New Year's time, but our watch is far from loose. Ships present are from many lands, among them the US Pacific Fleet, yard and smaller distinct craft. SOPA is the Okanogan (APA-Two Hundred-Twenty). Now our watch draws to a close as the year begins to dawn, Pray to God before it ends, that true peace will be achieved, Honorable and Just it must be. And a prayer for all our men, in the fields and in the ships and our own in decks below, catching rest asleep and so, watch over them God we pray. Peace and hope and New Year Blessings from Caroline to all afloat. Eternal Father strong to save, whose arm hath bound the restless wave, who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep, Its own appointed limits keep, Oh hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the deep.
